

$$\Gamma/G = \text{[Diagram]}$$

The diagram on the right is a graph consisting of a single vertex at the bottom, represented by a solid black circle. From this vertex, two curved edges extend upwards and outwards, meeting at a point at the top. These two edges form a diamond-like shape, representing a bouquet of two edges.